SKETCH OF HIS LIFE.

Sergeant Orange was universally estemed as one of the most valued members of the police force. He was a brave and efficient officer, and was courteens and kindly to all. If he had lived until April he would have been forty-five years a member of the force. In all of this time he was not once before the board for misconduct.

A native of Henrico county, where he was born on April 27. 1834, Sergeant Orange came to this city in 1850. He was appointed on the police force by Joseph Mayo, then Mayor of the city, and went on duty on the 29th of May, 1859, under Captain Archibaid Wilkinson, who was captain of the night watch, and remained on the night watch until April 1865, when the city was surrendered to United States troops. At the reorganization of the police in December, 1865, he was reappointed by David J. Saunders, provisional Mayor, and Major John H. Glaborne, chief of police, and remained in active duty until July 5, 1874, when he was detached as sanitary officer under Dr. J. G. Cabell, president of the Board of Health. He remained with that department until March, 1887, when he was appointed acting sergeant in November, 1888, and elected a sergeant in November, 1889, and elected a sergeant in April, 1890. He was quite prominent among the Masons, Red. Men and Pythians, of which orders he was a member.
